BIOGRAPHY

SHORT BIO

kdxonthemove (Chidubem Ifeanyi Okolo) is a Nigerian hip-hop/trap artist building a distinctive sound from the intersection of global trap culture and Nigerian identity. Abuja, FCT.

FULL BIO

kdxonthemove has been creating music since his teenage years, taking it professionally in 2016. Born and raised in Abuja, Nigeria, he started writing his own songs at 13, influenced by Travis Scott, Drake, Wiz Khalifa, Future, ASAP Rocky, Wizkid and Nasty C. His first release, "Benefit" (2016, as KingDeeX), was later pulled as he grew into his sound. Through persistence despite limited access to studios and promotion, he built a catalog spanning trap, melodic rap and Afro-fusion, rapping in multiple languages with rapid-fire flows he calls "punching jitsu". Now surrounded by a small circle of collaborators, kdxonthemove creates music that feels real, energetic, original and emotionally honest. Global sound. Nigerian soul. Real above everything.
